The Dublin Tourist Guide is not only a free magazine designed to be easily obtained by visitors from overseas, it's also an ideal outlet for you to reach those same people.

With a monthly release during the warm months late spring and summer months, and quarterly in the off-season, The Dublin Tourist Guide aims to cater for all of a visitor's needs when it comes to information about our city, and provides an indispensable tool about all the cool things to do in Dublin.

Distributed directly to the major visitor through Dublin's hotels and tourist sites, you reach the core target group when they are most receptive.
